

Andrew Parkes – Registered Team Manager

What is important to me?

- Being able to support others
- By supporting services users to be engaged within their care and be as independent as possible
- Ensuring that the environment is safe and effective to meet the needs of the service
- Having a positive culture within the home

How best to support me?

- By talking to me
- By supporting each other
- Providing me with the resources in meeting the service users and staffs needs

What do people like and admire about me?

- Being friendly
- Being approachable
- Being supportive
- Being open, transparent and consistent

