

Ian Aisbitt – PBS Consultant

What is important to me?

- My wife, family and friends.
- To make a difference in the lives of those I support.
- A sense of achievement when a job is done well.
- To be supported not judged.
- To be the best I can be.

How best to support me?

- Be supportive and let me know what is working well.
- Be honest and let me know what I can do better.
- Show me rather than tell me – visuals help.
- Involve me in decisions that affect me.

What do people like and admire about me?

- My positive approach and can do mentality.
- My enthusiasm.
- My approachability, honesty and reliability.
- Supportive / Helpful.

